Hi All,

Yet again some great images presented at Club night and some great interpretations of Door / Windows. And some good healthy debate and discussions on the photos. It's great to see members getting involved and putting their opinions forward and asking questions.

We had the results for our Summer Challenge. What a great variety of entries. Congratulations to all. The list of results are below. Remember to bring the entries back to our May club meeting where we will share and discuss the comments, plus give our club members another chance to have a look at them.

We also had our Composition outing to Auckland with the extra challenge of finding photos for the alphabet. Was great fun. Will be interesting to see how everyone interpreted it at our workshop.

Below are two blurbs from the day from Raewyn and Bev, plus some pics. I found Bev's quite challenging but she does say some are obscure, but that is the joy of photography. It's open to interpretation. Thanks guys for your input, it's nice to hear how members find the outings the committee arrange for you. Plus a variety from others.

And I hope you're all getting creative with next months subject of "Kiwiana" Still have my thinking cap on for that one.

Just some reminders of things coming up:-

Exhibition 2nd June to 20th June

Ayrlies

"If you think of gardening as an art form, Ayrlies is the best expression of that art." This is a quote by Jack Hobbs, manager of Auckland Botanic Gardens. Situated in the gently rolling country of east Auckland, this is one of New Zealand's best known gardens, characterised by sweeping lawns and informal but detailed plantings by ponds and waterways. A strong but sensitive use of colour is a hallmark of Ayrlies seen best in the lurid border where 'hot' colours are used to great effect and in other areas where old roses, clematis and perennials are combined in romantic profusion. Ayrlies is a seasonal garden where the owner has been challenged to have some plant at its best every week of the year, keeping horticultural and botanical interest in balance with the landscape. The garden has an almost subtropical climate which allows exotic plants such as Petrea, Alocasia, bromeliads, the flamboyant vireya rhododendrons and the exotic Ficus dammaropsis from New Guinea to flourish.

Join us on this outing, hopefully we will have lovely Autumn colours to photograph for May's theme "Autumn".

Composition Outing

I enjoyed the camera club's outing to the Auckland waterfront. The AT trains were great and ran to the timetable! I tried to get my A-Z photos from the architecture etc. I didn't get many! There were not many curved lines but I will keep looking and add them to my file. Here is my X O and W. Raewyn

Well, Sunday 5th March was another interesting outing with Images members. It was our grandson Ryan's 8th birthday & we had been invited to our son Matthew's work family fun day. That left me with just over an hour on the outing to take my 26 alphabet images. Talk about speed dating! Julie, Anita & I headed for Quay St and all but 3 images were taken within that area. I took images that caught my attention & I just hoped that I had enough to cover off all bases.

Then it was back on the train to Ellerslie Race Course for the family fun day. I took a few more photos there to extend my options.

Editing the images was challenging and some imagination had to be used to make what I had fit the alphabet. I only used 3 images from the fun day.

I found the exercise to be very helpful in actually being able to see an image and take it in a very short time frame. Here are a few of my images from the day, some obvious, some rather obscure. Bev

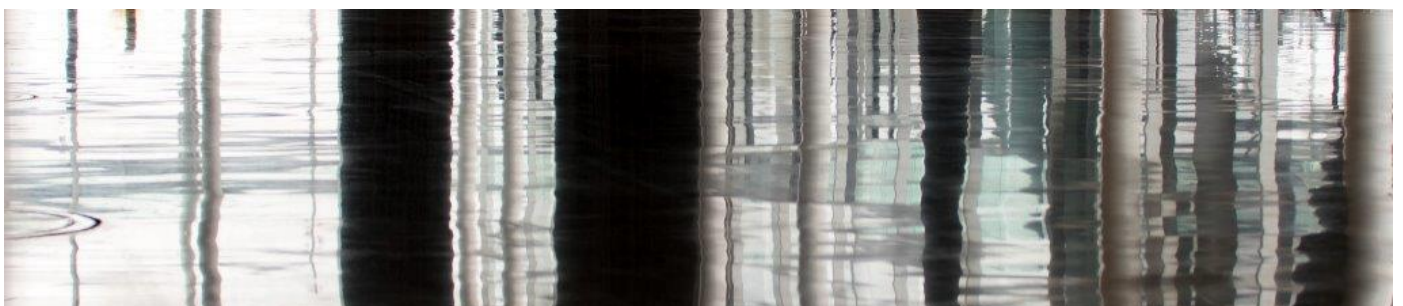

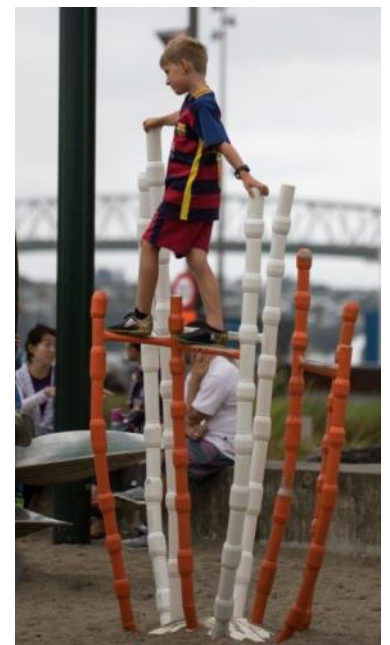

Gary Morriss A couple of images.

Good exercise for the brainery and enjoyable task.
