The Editors Musings

Welcome to the August newsletter

We had a very successful Salon dinner and presentation evening on Saturday 28th July, (seems an age away now). Our new venue worked very well and the dinner was excellent. Congratulations to all the entrants, the line-up of prints was impressive, and the digitals looked great on the screen. Below are the winning entries, there was no award given for intermediate digital. Congratulation to Stuart, Barry & Julie.

Stuart Braithwaite won the Advanced Print section with his stunning '4 Trees'

Barry Easton's mesmerising image

'The Gypsy's Eyes

was the winner in the

Advanced Digital section

The Intermediate Print award was won by

Julie Carswell with her beautiful

'Autumn on a Lily Pad'

The Most Creative award was shared by Amy Shepherd and Julie Carswell as the judges could not decide on which one was the best. Congratulations to them & all the other creative finalists. Keep up your creative imagery, it is great to see.

Man and Dog Shadow by Amy Shepherd

A Reflective Wine by Julie Carswell

The prize winners, left to right

Bev McIntyre — 3rd Advanced print, Lynn Johnstone — 3rd Advanced digital

Barry Easton — 1st Advanced digital, Julie Carswell — 1st Intermediate print & 1st= Most creative image, Robyn Wilkinson — 2nd Intermediate print, Amy Shepherd — 1st= Most creative image, Kate Turner — 3rd Intermediate print.

Absent — Stuart Braithwaite — 1st Advanced print, 2nd Advanced print and 2nd Advanced digital. Congratulations Stuart, what an awesome achievement!

We had a successful outing to Queen St a couple of Sunday's ago. Unfortunately we missed by mere minutes one of our new members who was relying on a bus to get her to her destination. Public transport is still a bit lacking at the weekends. We're sorry we missed her & hope it works better for the next outing. I haven't gotten too many images of participants as everyone was diving up alleyways to get their shots.

September's subject is 'People in & out of Context'. There have been some members who have understood the instructions to mean the same person in & out of context. Now, unless that was staged that would be extremely difficult to achieve. It is merely a person in their context and another person out of what you would think of as their context. No easy task anyway as I have discovered. I hope that helps a little, even though it is very close to club night time.*

And on the topic of subjects, we are getting close to the time for planning next year's programme so if you have a subject you would like included please let us know. We had two included this year from requests from members, (and no it wasn't next month's subject).

We are working on the club submission for Auckland Shootout, some great images have been taken, will let you know the final submission next club night.

Summer Assignment is open now. Plenty of time to work on getting a great set of 10 images by February 2019 club night.*

Good luck to those club members who have entered external competitions, we hope to hear of some positive results in the future.

A wee reminder to make sure you get your digital entries to Lynn by noon on the Sunday prior to club night, Thanks to those of you who managed to do so this month.*

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Outings Bleeps September 2018

Saturday September 15th.

‘Graveyard Atmosphere’, with the emphasis on atmosphere.

We are going to the Huntly Cemetery for a sunset photo shoot, with sunset being 6.10pm that day. We will meet there at 5pm to catch the changing lights.

The cemetery is on the right at the north end of Huntly, go past the newer section to an entry way to the older section and car park.

There are also local cemeteries of interest you might try before then, Pokeno, Tuakau Redoubt, Waiuku, Drury, Wellington St Pukekohe, try sunsets and sunrises or fog, enjoy!

Saturday 13th October

‘Subframing’, with a trip to the Hamilton Zoo.

The zoo is at 138 Brymer Road in the suburb of Rotokauri, approached from the new Southern Motorway into Hamilton, well sign posted.

We will meet there at 11am, more information to follow next month.

Saturday 17th November

‘Junkyards’, with a trip to Mohrings Mill on Gordon Road Te Aroha.

More details of where and when next month.
