The Editors Musings

Welcome to the September newsletter

We are rapidly coming to the end of another year of competition, comradeship and fun.

Our club team entered the Auckland Shootout competition again this year, our entry was submitted and we will find out the results on Saturday evening 13th October. The details are to be found on page 3. If you would like to come along to the BIG REVEAL and you haven't RSVP'd directly please email me on secretary@images.org.nz so I can let Howick Camera Club know the numbers by 6th October. It is a fun competition and I can't wait to see the results.

Some members of the club also entered other competitions, some successfully, some not & that includes me on both counts. Margaret Vickers won 3rd place in the Franklin Arts Festival photography open section. Congratulations and well done Margaret. :-)

Sandy Campbell, Lynn Johnstone, and I had images accepted into the PFCC Creative Focus competition with Lynn achieving an Honours. (Wow!!) It was my third time of entering so I guess persistence does pay off in the end.

The committee will be having a planning meeting soon to come up with next year's programme. We need subjects for club nights and destinations for outings. I have a few obscure ones in mind, ha ha, Let us know if you want a subject included or if you have found a magic location that you would like to share with the club.

The subject for September In & Out of Context was certainly a challenge. I was really impressed with what some of our members came up with. The ingenuity & thinking outside the square was great, the setting up of situations was inspirational, well done to those who took on the challenge and conquered it. Do we want to do it again? I hope so!!

I hope some of you are thinking about the 'Endless Summer Assignment'. It is another interesting challenge to showcase 10 images of a subject of your choice presented in a format of your choice. It certainly opens up the possibilities by not confining it to the summer break. Having fun shooting. Could some members please bring along to next club night their previous projects to show the new members some examples of what can be done.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Outing to Huntly Cemetery

We had a very successful outing to Huntly Cemetery on Saturday 15th September. Well done to Margaret, our outings co-ordinator, for finding a cemetery with some character, with enough space for everyone to spread out and not too far to travel. The light was beautiful when we arrived with that lovely late afternoon golden glow.

Beautiful Huntly Brick wall glowing in the afternoon light

Not sure how much atmosphere Kiwi Rail can add to a graveyard

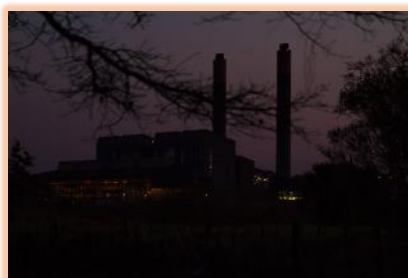

Beautiful final resting place and photography location. Couldn't miss the red hat either.

Then the sun began to set over the river, with a lovely fiery glow. There was a tiny bit of cloud in just the right place to give a bit more interest. Next thing Bill and Barrie were up on the stop bank to photograph the reflection of the sunset in the river. But not before much discussion and finger pointing! :-). The colours kept on intensifying and then were gone leaving a soft light for capturing the power station beginning to light up. Thank you everyone for your company, I'm looking forward to entries next month for our Graveyard Atmosphere subject.

Sub-framing practise for November

Outings Bleeps for September 2018

Two more outings for this year and then a break over December and January, time to enjoy working on Summer Assignments.

Saturday 13th of October is our outing to the Hamilton Zoo for ‘Subframing’.

The Zoo is at 138 Brymer Road in the suburb of Rotokauri, it is well signposted from the new Southern Motorway to Hamilton,

Meet there at 11am, there is a good café for your coffee stop.

At October club night we will organise car pooling.

Saturday 17th of November is our outing to Mohrings Saw Mill on Gordon Road, Te Aroha for ‘Junkyard’ photo shoot.

They have old timber mill equipment, cars and trucks, buildings etc.

There will be a charge per person for the visit.

I will have more information next month per the amount & arrangements.
