The Editors Musings

Welcome to the October newsletter

We have had another eventful month and club night with some interesting graveyard images for our judge Ross to critique. That was certainly a challenging subject.

We had an outing to Hamilton Zoo on the 13th with some potential sub-framing photos taken for next club night. Report on page 3.

The Auckland Shootout Reveal was well attended by members of the nine competing clubs. I think the standard of images entered this year was amazing, as you will see when we play the av on club night. I have discovered that the original version of the shootout was contested by 4 clubs and they only had one day to shoot their images! It has since expanded to have nine clubs entering with one week to take the photos. See our entry on page 4.

The 2018 NZ Camera book is out among our members for perusal. In a conversation with Raewyn about the book she mentioned an image that she would have liked to critique. This set me thinking and I will be making up a critique sheet to go in the book. When it is your turn to have the book I would like you to pick an image or two and make comments on it, whether they be why you like the image or alternatively what you feel could improve the image. These can be anonymous if you wish. I think it will give an already outstanding book more interest as we see what our fellow members like or don't within its pages. I might even have the 2017 book back out again for the same thing to happen, you can look at it with your fresh critiquing eyes.

On Saturday 20th Gary, Bill, Stuart & I photographed the racing at the NZ Radio Racing Nationals organised by the NZ Radio Yachting Association. Stuart and Gary then constructed a template to put the photos into and each competitor was presented with a framed photo of their yacht in action. Great work, thanks very much Stuart for your time in making the template work, it was much appreciated.

I have included an image of the yachts in action and an example of a framed photo. It was a fun & challenging exercise, which was new initiative for the Yachting Association and a first for me. Always a new challenge to face. :-)

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Hamilton Zoo Visit

Saturday 13th October dawned fine but chilly for our club outing to the Hamilton Zoo. We had a good turnout of eight current & former members. It was good to catch up with Barry and Anne and spend some time together. And former member Peter Billings came along to join us as well. It was nice to see Peter again and to know that our newsletter is helping to keep people in touch. Alex and I were on a bit of a tight schedule as we had to be back in time to go to the Auckland Shootout Big Reveal. He had a goal of finding some animals that would add to his list of animals that he has seen. Top of his list were the Agouti and the Brazilian Tapir. They were duly ticked off when we eventually found the tapir. But on the whole I got the impression that we were keener to see the animals than they were to see us. Some examples....

Fortunately, the ever watchful Meerkat was prepared to look our way for his portrait to be taken.

The feeding stations for the giraffes have been moved further into their enclosure which ruled out the closeup shots we have been able to get on previous visits. A bit disappointing for the photographers but no doubt more peaceful for the wildlife. All in all another great Images club outing.

Auckland Shootout 2018

Results

The results are in and the Reveal has been attended by five members of the team. There were some amazing images taken this year by some very proficient photographers which meant that our club submission was 9th out of the nine clubs entered. But that means that the only way to go is up so we try harder next year. Once again I have enjoyed convening the Shootout entry this year and I thank all the team members for their efforts in making sure that we had a great submission. Some of the members found the subjects a little daunting but still did their best to find subjects to photograph. I have a copy of the Reveal AV which we will play at next club night. Individual team placings are as follows.

*Easton Zone Year 8 Boys Netball
Champions by Alex McIntyre.
9 points , 7th= place*

*Pukekohes Pioneer Cottage
by Sandy Campbell
4 points, 9th place*

*An Enthusiastic Encounter
by Anita Harris
16 points, 3rd= place*

*The Walking School Bus
by Ryan McIntyre
9 points, 6th place*

*Patumahoe Wetlands by Amy Shepherd
7 points, 8th place*

*Maungakiekie
by Diane Todd
1 point, 9th place*

Once again there were some great images that we couldn't use because we needed to fill all the categories and use all the team members. It's a real juggling act. Thank you to Julie & Ewen for being the standby members.

Bev, Shootout Convenor

Outings & Workshops

The weekend of 10th & 11th November sees the Thames Steampunk festival on again. The parade will be on Saturday 10th at 10.30 am with a mini carnival from 11.30 am. This is a great opportunity to get some funky photos and immerse yourself in all things weird & wonderful.

They have old timber mill equipment, cars and trucks, buildings etc.

There will be a charge per person for the visit.

This outing has not been confirmed as yet, hopefully we will have more info by club night.

A Big Day For Alex

After the many months of fundraising to raise a total of $2,523.96 for the Blind Foundation Guide Dogs, Alex finally got to do the Auckland Marathon today.

He was planning on doing the half marathon but was too young, so did the 12km Traverse.

He was also too young to run /walk by himself so took his mother, Gwyn, along with him.

They wave d as they assembled at the start, then again when we drove past them over the bridge and a final big wave as they finished in 2 hours & 13 minutes. Top job Alex & Gwyn.

Then after a quick rest up he was off to the Auckland Botanic Gardens for the prizegiving of the Friends of the Botanic Gardens Photographic competition. He had entered two images into the child/teen section, which was added to the competition for the first time this year.

He took out first place in this section with his great image of a red silverbeet plant. He is pictured here standing between his two entries with his prizes of a certificate, a photo block of his winning image and a lovely trophy.

Well done Alex! A great day indeed. :-)
