The Editors Musings

Welcome to the November newsletter

Well, another month has slipped by, we are nearly at the end of another successful year at Images. This month we had an outing to Mohrings Mill at Te Aroha and a Lightroom Classic Workshop.

We were able to offer one-on-one tutoring at the workshop for those who had specific areas that they needed help with. Thank you to Bill & Lynn for providing your expertise to help our members add to their skill set.

The committee are currently working on a plan to have the club images for February next year judged remotely rather than have the judge come to the club. This will mean that the images will need to be submitted earlier than the Sunday before which is our normal cut off time. We should have more information by December club night.

And on the subject of submissions, we are investigating the best sizing of image submissions to be compatible with our new TV. We will let you know when we have come up with the required size.

Keep working on your Annual Assignment, a set of 10 images to be presented in whatever transportable format you like. This is to be handed in at the February 2019 club night.

Next year you will be able to submit two images for judging each month regardless of whether it is internal or external judging. They can be both set, both open or one of each, it's up to you.

We have booked bunk room accommodation at the Shorebird Centre, Kaiaua for 22nd & 23rd March 2019 for a weekend of fun & photography. Mark it on your calendar.

Committee has also prepared a programme full of 'hopefully' interesting outings and workshops to keep you inspired and entertained next year. The calendar will go up on the website as soon as possible after December club night as we finalise events.

Finally, we will finish the year with dinner at the Franklin Club, (where Salon was held) on Sunday 16th December at 5.30pm, cost $25 per head for carvery dinner.

In the meantime we will see you on the 11th for an evening of 'Junkyard' viewing. Can't wait to see what turns up.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Mohrings Mill Visit

On Saturday 17th November we travelled to Te Aroha to visit Mohrings Sawmill.

We were greeted by Mrs Mohring who along with a welcome cuppa and lovely home baking gave us a fascinating brief history of the Mohring family and their connection to the mill.

We then had a safety briefing outlining where we may & may not go. And then we were let loose to forage among the most amazing collection of treasures, many of which have probably not moved in a very long time. Everyone dispersed in different directions as they spied something that was a 'must photograph' item. What a great day out. It is good to see that not all unused equipment ends up in the scrap dealers yard. Thank you to Grace for liasing with the Mohrings to enable this outing to happen.
