The Editors Musings

Welcome to the June newsletter

Salon judging has been held with 89 great images assessed by our panel of judges.

Once again the images looked great, reflecting the talent in our club. Be sure to book your spot for Saturday July 27th for an evening of celebration & to find out who got what. See page 4 for details.

Our outing to Fieldays was put off due to members other commitments. I must admit when I heard of the hours long traffic snarl up on Friday afternoon I was quietly pleased that I was not there.

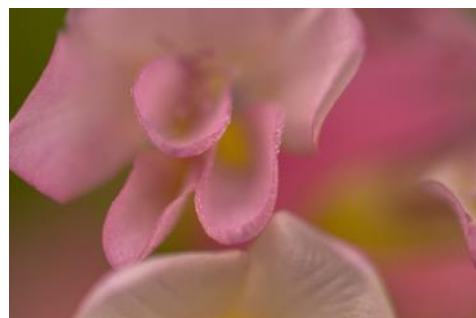

Going to the Classic Car Museum at Hamilton is going to be a much easier prospect to get to & well worth the journey down if you are into anything motoring. And if not, the café is worth a visit on it's own. See Grace's outings info on page 3.

Please note a change of date for the portrait shoot, Sunday 18th August.

We intend to hold the Processing workshop on Sunday 22nd September. This will be "Your next step". And will cover whichever programme you wish to work in eg. Lightroom, Photoshop, Elements etc. . Put the date in your diary, details to come.

There are lots of external competitions either open now or opening soon. Details of some of them are in the newsletter. Please consider having a go at maybe one, it certainly helps to look at your images with an eye to matching the criteria required in these competitions.

This is the flower image that I had accepted for the PSNZ entry into the FIAPP Colour Biennial. A big surprise & an honour even if PSNZ didn't place very highly this year. I thought their set looked stunning, so would love to see the winning images. I have yet to find them on the web to provide a link.

Housekeeping.. It has been noted that a few members are not resizing their images to the specified size. Lynn will be contacting you to see if you require some assistance in resizing . Thank you to those who do, it makes the process flow much more smoothly for the people working behind the scenes.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev
