The Editors Musings

Welcome to the July newsletter

Salon is over for another year. Thank you to all the members who submitted images and attended the annual celebration of our collective photographic endeavours,. It was a great evening, not without a few hiccups, but thanks to our tireless committee & helpers we got there in the end. Congratulations to everyone, your work all looked awesome.

And congratulations also to Kate Turner who had her image 'Nihotupu Reservoir' selected as a finalist (landscape) in the D-Photo Sigma Amateur Photographer of the Year 2019 competition. There were 14,634 entries over 11 categories with approx. 250 finalists selected. So, well done Kate, you can see the image in the latest D-Photo magazine.

Change to Calendar We have had to swap two subjects around. October 8th will now be 'Underground' with internal judging & November 12th will be 'Candid Moment'. Please note the change in your diaries.*

We have a Shootout Team! Kate and Phil have decided to have a go for the first time this year. Alex & Ryan will be our beginners again this year, though not so sure about Alex after his haul at Salon at the weekend! :-). Ewen & Ian Stewart have put their hands up again after having a break for a year. Julie & I will be the back up duo. We are now awaiting the themes & the starters flag. Have fun guys. Looking forward to seeing what we all come up with this year.

Most of the external competitions have closed off now, but there is still a wee bit of time left for the Dunedin Festival of Photography. Details on page 7.

See page 4 for the outings that Grace has organised for us. Some cool venues to visit with your cameras. Pop the dates in your diary.

We are planning a workshop for September 22nd. This will be your opportunity to further your skills in whatever programme you are currently using, or to check out other programmes. It will be tailored to your needs, so let us know what you would like covered.

We will again be holding our end of year get together with an evening meal at the Franklin Club on Sunday 8th December. Put it in your diaries.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Salon 2019

On Saturday evening 27th July, we held our annual Salon dinner & Prizegiving. There was a good turnout of members and supporting family members who were warmly welcomed. After a lovely meal we gathered in anticipation of finding out who got what in each of the categories.

On Sunday 14th July Images had an outing to the Classic Car Museum in Hamilton. As is often the case when we have outings the weather was a bit dodgy but at least this time we were to be indoors. The museum holds a fantastic private collection of all things automobile, a treasure trove of nostalgia, and so beautifully clean, tidy & well laid out.

The vague plan was to practise compositional skills and there was no shortage of subjects to photograph. And the good thing is that they all stay still while you try various angles to see what suited the subject best. These are some of the images I took, converted to b&w to hopefully portray shapes, angles, textures etc. Being amongst vehicles, particularly the beautiful old cars & bikes of yesteryear is such a joy, definitely my happy space.
