The Editors Musings

Welcome to the September newsletter

The club put another great submission into the Auckland Shootout this year. Images & results on page 4. Thank you team & well done.

We had a successful workshop last Sunday with members able to increase their knowledge & skills in the areas that they were ready for. Thank you to club members who came along to help out. With everyone contributing their own bit of expertise there was lots of learning going on.

We had an outing to Eden Garden on a nice Sunday morning, report on page 5.

Have you all been going 'underground' for our next club night? I am looking forward to seeing what you have dug up.

Annual Assignment. I hope that you have been thinking about your assignment or even working on it already. It is a set of ten images presented in any transportable format.

Deadline for the assignment is February 2020 club night.

Some of our members have had success in external competitions.

Kate was a finalist in D –Photo Sigma landscape section and took out 2nd & 3rd in Franklin Arts Festival landscape category. She also took out 1st place in Auckland Shootout lights theme. Awesome work Kate.

Lynn received a highly commended and 2 acceptances & Sandy had 3 images accepted in this year's Creative Focus competition. Well done to you both.

I received an honour & 1 acceptance in New Brighton Photojournalism Competition and one acceptance in Dunedin Festival of Photography.

It is a challenge to put your photography out there in the wider arena of competitions, it makes you focus on what is really a good image.

It's nearly that time of year again when committee plan next year's calendar. We have our thinking caps on to try to come up with subjects to challenge & perplex you. If you have something you would like included let a member of committee know, otherwise you are at our mercy. :-)

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Auckland Shootout 2019

I s over for another year. We had another great entry for this fun competition. The club was paced 5th out of eight teams with 96 points, a good effort. Kate took out 1st place in Auckland Lights theme with her image of the harbour bridge & city lights taken at the earlybird time of 5.37am. Well done Kate! Julie (reflections), Phil (action) & Alex (windows) were all fourth in their themes. Ewen (eateries) was 5th & Ryan (stairways) took out 6th place. Well done team for another awesome submission. I'm sure Ian would have been proud .

Eden Garden Outing Sunday 8th September

Linda, Bill & Bev met up at the Eden Garden café for a cuppa & a chat before venturing out into the garden with our cameras. Bill was, as usual, an early starter & had checked out a fair bit of the garden already. We spent some time discussing lens, & focussing settings on some lens as well as minimum focussing distances before trying to put it all into practise. The tulips were well past their best with the recent rain not helping, but there were plenty of other lovely flowers & fresh leaves to practise on. All of these images were taken using a 100mm macro lens, utilising it's three focussing settings, proving it's versatility.
