The Editors Musings

Welcome to the October newsletter

Well, we are getting close to the end of another successful year of fun & photography. Only two more club nights to go, where has the time gone?

We have added a bonus outing in November, to go to the Kaiaua coast to photograph the sunset & returning godwits. This will happen before next club night, be sure to check out the details on page 3.

And we also have our scheduled outing to Hampton Downs for a change of pace for the Historic Racing Club day.

Keep working on your annual assignments. It is a set of ten images presented in any transportable format. This is a fun challenge to undertake & try to make up a cohesive set of images. Deadline for the assignment is February 2020 club night. Please talk to a committee member if you are unsure of what is required.

Committee have had their planning meeting & come up with subjects for next year. This is the list, the order may change a bit depending on judges being available.

Leading Lines - Portrait, self, animal, people—Monochrome or Duotone—Seeing Double—Triptych—Still Life—Expressing Culture—Abstract—My Happy Place—After Dark—Flora & Fauna.

We will run workshops on portrait, monochrome, building a triptych, still life photography and also go out for some after dark photography. We hope to do an overnight to Tiri Tiri Matangi later next year, depending on accommodation availability.

So, hopefully you will find something to inspire & challenge you to get out with your cameras next year.

We had a fantastic outing to the Ngatea Water Gardens last Sunday. What a beautiful place. Report & images on pages 4 & 5.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Ngatea Water Gardens

On Sunday 20th October, members of the club met at the Glory Café in Ngatea for a lovely morning tea & a catch up before heading around the corner to the beautiful water gardens. Julie & I had been there once before and I found it to be even more beautiful than I remembered. Upon checking my files I see that we visited in January so we didn't see all the gorgeous spring blossom that was on display this time. Once again a great outing with a beautiful setting & good company.
