The Editors Musings

Welcome to the January newsletter

I hope you are all rested and ready for another year of fun and photos.

We began the year with an outing for an intrepid few to the Auckland Anniversary Regatta. A good start to the year. A report is on pages 4 & 5.

We start the competition year with our first subject 'Leading Lines'. It will be interesting to see what everyone comes up with for our judge to critique.

Have you all been working on your assignments over the break. You will need to bring them along to club on 11th February. A set of 10 images presented in any transportable format.

Your lovely committee have organised some interesting outings & workshops for this year. Some of the outings are to local venues that some people (me included) just never quite manage to get along to. It's good to have a date on a calendar to work around.

Check out Grace's blurb on the next page & plan the next few months.

The date for the portrait shoot is yet to be confirmed, we will let you know as soon as it is.

Short blurb this month, someone has just turned the tv on to the cricket.

Over & out!!

Keep snapping, from your editor,

Bev

Outings for February/March 2020

We are underway with a new year, full of opportunities!

February; 16th or 23rd Portrait Shoot; (Date to be confirmed)

To be there by 9am, transport available leaving from Pukekohe at 8.15am from the rear town hall car park – must be booked with Grace 0278628257

Cake and coffee available at the market.

April Saturday 18th; Hamilton's Gap

an evening trip, more info next month.

Cheers; Grace

Auckland Anniversary Day Regatta

We had a great day out at the regatta last Monday. The waterfront area is in chaos with all the alterations, so with a cruise ship in, plus weekend visitors, it was a challenge to get anywhere.

But we started off at Viaduct Basin to see the Dragon Boat racing.

We then moved on to Princess Wharf to watch the tug boat racing. We were able to go up the stairs to the observation area, a great vantage point.

There were lots of other boats on the harbour coming and going and an interesting bus manoeuvre at the end of the wharf

After a late morning tea stop it was off to Captain Cook Wharf to the festival zone. There was a traction engine, Ted Ashby cruises, and a tug boat to board & check out. Straddle cranes were on display & one was even doubling as a stand for a giant screen. And it was interesting to look at landmarks from a different perspective from the normal view.

We didn't stay around to see the yachts out on the harbour, it was getting very hot and crowded so we wandered off to find a nice cool train to head home on.

It was my first outing to a regatta day & I thoroughly enjoyed the day, but was also happy to get home, put my feet up & have a nice cuppa.

Bev.
