The Editors Musings

Welcome to the May newsletter

Well, here we are a month further on and into Alert Level 2. Interesting how that has now become part of our everyday language. Thank you everyone for playing your part to keep our families & friends safe. It was quite strange to hear Dr Bloomfield reminding us the other day that there is still a raging pandemic going on outside our borders. It's a bit like being in a cocoon. And what better country to be cocooned in!

Our remote internal judging went well this month. Thanks to Ewen for collating the entries, Stuart for making the AV and Alex for teaching his grandmother how to put tables in a Word document. And thank you to you, the judges. What a great team.

Now we will be able to have a regular club night in June. Our judge is keen & looking forward to it. Let's give her some awesome triptychs to critique. We will need to still be social distancing & no one is to come if they feel unwell. We will put the conditions imposed by our venue on the reminder when we send it out.

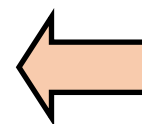

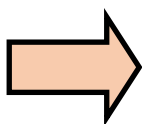

PLEASE BRING YOUR SALON PRINTS ALONG TO CLUB NIGHT. Our judges are all set to go later in June so we will need your entries. If you won't be coming to club night we can make arrangements for you to drop them off somewhere in Pukekohe. No decisions have been made yet on Salon evening, we will let you know as soon as we have confirmed details.

Please remember that subscriptions are due now, thank you to those members who have paid, I hope that our treasurer won't have to send out reminder emails. You can find details of amount to be paid & bank account number in the Membership tab of 'About Us' on the website.

Our small bubble of two became three on day one of Level 3 when our city based grandson decamped to the farm to do real jobs around online learning until he had to go back to school. The online learning was an interesting experience with zoom meetings with teachers & classmates & different platforms for each subject. I'm pleased he could keep track of it all.

And my French lessons are still happening, haven't missed a day yet. Doubt that I'll ever be fluent but I am really enjoying the challenge.

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Introduction

Nelson Camera Club's National Triptych Salon was initiated to encourage and stimulate photographers in the skill of creating three images that not only work well together but also succeed in providing a total impression on the viewer that is greater than the sum of the three individual photographs.

For the purpose of this Salon a triptych is a presentation made up of three (and only three) distinctly separated photographic images displayed on a common background. The subject matter is open.
