The Editors Musings

Welcome to the September newsletter

Another month goes by and we move slowly down the Alert Levels. Some things are getting back to something resembling normal. But the Harbour Bridge incidents have now added another level of disruption to the city.

We had an outing to Hopetoun Bridge last Saturday evening. It was a pleasant interlude on a nice afternoon. Once again good company & nice to get out for a while.

The Astro shoot has been cancelled for this year, we will try again next year when the planets will hopefully align. We still intend to go to Tiri Tiri Matangi at the end of October & the Botanic Gardens in November as per the outings info page organised by Grace.

Shootout reveal was held by Zoom meeting, a novel experience. Images club did well with two first placings one for Stuart & one for Sharron. Congratulations to you both, awesome images. We hope to get the full results sheets sometime next week to see how everyone else went & where we were placed overall. It was an interesting challenge for all concerned, the organisers & the participating clubs. Well done to everyone involved it was great to be able to make it happen under lockdown conditions. Congratulations to Waiuku Camera Club who won this year's round. Our submission is on the next page.

I hope you have been looking out for something great to capture for your Annual Assignment . You have until February club night take a set of 10 images and to present them in a printed format in any transportable way you would like. It is always a challenge to firstly come up with an idea and then to take ten images that go together well to make a set or to tell a story.

We still hope to hold the One on One Workshop. We will gauge the level of interest at next club night & see what we can fit in before the end of the year. Those of you who have seen the Hopetoun Bridge images on our club Facebook page (Images Photography Group) will maybe be like me & ask Bill to show how he achieved the processing of the images that he posted.

Hopefully we will be back to having a walk-in club night for October. See you all then.

In the meantime....

Keep snapping, from your editor, Bev

Auckland Shootout 2020

The shootout has been completed and judged under lockdown conditions. We are awaiting the Big Reveal. The organizing club made the subjects something that could be taken in or near team members' homes so no one had to travel far to take their images. Unfortunately Bill & Raewyn had to pull out of the team as they reside in the Waikato & were not allowed into Auckland to take photos. There were some cool & imaginative images presented, it was a challenging task to come up with the six to be submitted for the competition. But choose we finally did & this is our submission.

Outing To Hopetoun Bridge

Last Saturday evening saw a number of tripods & a monopod sprout on the Hopetoun Bridge in readiness for sunset & some early evening light trail shots.

I didn't think I was going to make it, had a few issues to sort out, but we were able to make a late dash up the motorway, & avoid the queues from the harbour bridge & an incident in the tunnel.

The sunset was not much to get excited about but there were a few interesting clouds about. It was a good evening, the winds had died down, the showers kept away, the company was great, as always.

Outings for the end of 2020

Saturday October 31st – visit to Tiritiri Matangi Island.

Day trip – Take the train into Auckland and there is a few minutes walk to the ferry which leaves 9am on the dot, returns from the island at 3pm.

Cost $85 per adult. Book on line with Fullers 360, as there is a load limit with only weekend trips going to the island.

There is no food purchases on the island, bring your lunch and cold drinks, good walking footwear and light rain coat, a walking pole is also a good idea.

Great opportunities for photographs during the boat trip, America's cup boats, whales, sea birds. On the island, birds, lizards, giant wetas, native trees and plants, a really special place.

Saturday November 21st - Auckland Botanical Gardens

Hill Road Manurewa

Meet in the café at 10.30am

If you have never been to the gardens, you're in for a treat.

And if you have, then you will be amazed at the changes.

Sunday December 13th— End Of Year Get Together

At Ewen & Bev's Place, 55 Wily Road, Puni, afternoon.

Details to follow.

Book all these dates on your calendar cheers, Grace.
